

Leeds Inspired Main Grants Round 6 - January 2014

Applicant	Summary	Award
A Quiet Word	A guided walk along Roseville road, meeting the people and businesses, hearing and seeing their stories unfold through performance, puppetry, photography and movement. Created by a team of Leeds artists and members of the community.	£12,000
Beeston Festival	Support to integrate bike art and activities into this year's Beeston Festival including a new permanent mural in the park, a graffiti car and a bicycle powered stage.	£3,000
Colours May Vary	A series of public exhibitions, talks and screenings with artists including Ricky Adam, an exhibition of Grand Depart art and a festival of typography.	£3,500
Compass Live Art	A citywide free programme strand to Compass commissioning seven new durational pieces of work by local national and international artists.	£6,500
Heads Together	Support for the opening season at ChapelFM the new venue in Seacroft and the new home of ELFM. Included performances and workshops by Billy Bragg, John Hegley and Clio Barnard and Madeline Bunting.	£7,000
Leeds West Indian Carnival	A series of pop-up mini Carnivals, with a costume troupe, Steel band, Soca music system, stalls and food taking the spirit of Leeds Carnival to other Leeds events.	£12,000
Left Bank Leeds	A community bike festival in collaboration with Hyde Park Picture House. A series of pedal powered film screenings and others at HPPH. Accompanied by a bike art exhibition, community workshops and a pedal powered gig on 5th July.	£7,600
Lumen	New music commission for Recon 2014 working with Dave Lynch and LIMA to create an outdoor projection and music event using brain sensors to visualize the emotional states of performing musicians.	£7,000
Otley Courthouse	Events and arts activities for families to create bike dressing and bunting in the run up to the Grand Depart delivered by Big Hoo Ha at Otley Courthouse.	£4,500
Peepal Tree Press	Creation of a new performance by Khadijah Ibrahiim based on her new book of poetry. The premier would take place at WYP during Black History Month, followed by an additional performance at Seven Arts and is accompanied by writing workshops for elders and young people.	£8,000
Playful Leeds	The commissioning and creation of 3 large outdoor Junkbots by artists working with residents during the summer in communities across Leeds. The project includes a free workshop by the creators of the WEEE man for Eden project.	£10,000

Pool In Wharfedale Parish Council	Tour de France village decorations working with 300 schoolchildren and community members producing artwork for lamppost banners to hang in the village during Tour de France.	£9,966
Project Space Leeds	A two-week installation and gallery activities by Nous Vous in the form of a temporary institute. Including an interactive artwork, music outdoors, lectures in the bar and hands on workshops.	£10,000
Thought Bubble	A woodland installation for Thought Bubble inspired by Hayao Miyazaki filled with lit-up cut out lanterns that will be created during a series of workshops with community groups prior to the festival. During the exhibition, attendees will also be able to create their own lantern to add to the installation and storytelling sessions will take place under the trees.	£7,945
Unlimited Theatre	Support for the creation and performance of a new show about money for young people, based on Unlimited's successful previous show Money the Gameshow.	£10,000